From Hon. W. H. Jones, of West Dover, Vt.

"I have been troubled from my boyhood with chronic or hereditary lung complaint. Some years since, early in the winter, I took cold, which as usual settled into a severe cough, which continued to increase as the season advanced, although I made use of all the cough remedies I had knowledge of. My family physician also prescribed for me, but I felt no relief. During all this time I was gradually running down, losing flesh and strength, until my friends as well as myself, became very much alarmed, thinking I should waste away in consumption. While in Boston, during the spring following, I was induced to try WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. After one day's trial I was sensible that it was relieving me; in ten days time my cough had entirely ceased, and I was soon restored to my health and strength. I have ever since kept the BALSAM in my house, and whenever any member of my family has a cough or cold, it is immediately resorted to. No family should be without it." Sold by all druggists.

Read and Learn for Yourself.

Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense in making them known to the people. This is not the case with BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP, although but a few years introduced into this country, its sale now reaches in every town and village in the U. S. Its wonderful success in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Pneumonia, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge, by Druggists. No such a test of merit was ever given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your Druggist..... and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents. eowdw *

DR. JAMES

Has removed to Broughton street opposite the City Chambers. Philip James, M. D., Extracts Polypus and Cancer without the use of the knife when taken in time.

Rheumatism cured in one hour without pain. He is now using the Electric Magnetic Machine with good effect in many diseases of Rheumatic, Palsy or Paralysis and Fits.

MRS. JAMES, Midwife of long experience and successful practice in this city, is open to engagement with ladies to attend them at their home, or they can be accommodated at her residence.

N. B.—Special attention given to all diseases of women and children.

The Machine was Worn Out.

Why? Not because it was not well built, but it was wrongly run. Thousands of men who have run down long before their three-score and ten years are accomplished, might have been renewed into sprightliness and vim if they had tried the well known PERUVIAN SYRUP, which contains among its compounds the Protoxide of Iron, so combined that it assimilates with the blood and invigorates the whole system. This syrup has proved efficacious in thousands of cases, and will do everybody good who use it. All druggists keep it.

REASONS WHY THE "RAYMOND" IS THE BEST SEWING MACHINE.—It is a simple machine having but few working parts and always ready to work; runs the lightest; makes the least noise; has the most room under the arm; is most easily learned; is the strongest; is the finest finished; is the handsomest piece of furniture; is reasonable in price, and is for sale on easy terms. Hundreds of the "Raymond Sewing Machines" are in constant use in the Province, and every buyer of them is from experience satisfied that the "Raymond" is the best machine in the market.

A full supply of these machines with new special improvements just received.

BROWN & WHITE beg to call attention to the new and fashionable shapes in ladies' and children's felt and straw hats and bonnets, which they have just received, comprising the Mother Hubbard, Pera, Shipton, Kars, Peabody and other late styles; also, flowers and feathers in all the new shades; millinery ornaments in great variety bonnet and hat shapes, laces, Turquoise silks, &c., &c *

MISS RUTLAND begs to inform her friends and the ladies generally that she received per last Dakota an assortment of fashionable millinery, straw hats and bonnets; also, felts of the newest shapes, flowers, feathers, ribbons, silk, black and colored silk velvets, &c., &c. Ladies' underclothing and baby linen always on hand. Fort street, Oct. 5th, 1877. *

BLOATERS.—A fresh lot of genuine bloaters on hand to-day. Go to the house on the rock on Humboldt street and try 'em.

FRESH YARMOUTH BLOATERS at Fell & Co's., Fort street.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Cool calls attention to the beautiful alluminium-lined vulcanite plates for upper and lower sets. The advantage of this work is that it is very thin, much stronger and lighter than the common plate usually worn; also, being a better conductor of heat and cold, it does not produce the irritation, something caused by rubber or nonconducting substances. I make these sets for $35, something never done before, and guarantee my patrons that after once wearing one of them they will wear no other. The treatment of diseased teeth and fine operating I make a specialty. Teeth built up with pure gold to their natural contour; artificial crowns adjusted to roots in the best manner. Work of every description done anywhere I engage to do at the most reasonable prices. *

MR. R. B. THOMPSON, DENTIST, has returned to his rooms in the Occidental Building. The rooms have been newly furnished throughout, papered, painted, etc., and Mr. Thompson having sole right of the Government street entrance, the door at the top of the stairs leading to the billiard rooms will be blocked up. No expense has been spared to make the rooms comfortable and attractive to patients.

BLANKBOOK MANUFACTORY AND BOOKBINDERY.

Paper ruled to any pattern. Tickets, receipts, etc., numbered and perforated. Charts and maps mounted. The best classes of modern machinery employed. R. T. WILLIAMS, Government street, entrance through Messrs. Hibben & Co.'s store. * *

OLD CHICORY is almost a thing of the past. Finlayson's Coffee presides over the present. It has now superseded what used to be claimed as "superior to and other manufactured on this coast," and will soon be found on every well-furnished table in the Province. Prepared at his premises on Fort street, and sold by all the principal dealers.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD will be paid to the most complete Sewing Machine in the market doing the best and greatest variety of work, to compete with the Osborne A! Sewing machine agents please notice. G. Walker, machinist. T. Fletcher, General Agent, Fort Street, Victoria.

ORLEANS HOUSE.—This time-honored hostelrie has been leased to Mrs. David Ellis, by whom the well-earned reputation of the house will be maintained. A very reasonable scale of charges has been arranged and if a sincere desire to please her guests can win a share of popular custom Mrs. Ellis will be sure to succeed.

DR. J. CALDER, Dentist, has returned from a professional tour on the Mainland and is now ready to wait on those who may require his services. Office on Fort street.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING.—Orders left with M. W. Waitt & Co., Government street, or P.O. box 145, will be promptly attended to by Oliver H. Goodwin. 3m*

FELL'S COFFEE, superior to any other manufactured on the Coast, may be obtained of all respectable dealers throughout the Province. *

DR. COOL has removed to Fort street, oppsite the Mechanics Literary Institute Building. * *

SITTING BULL.

We give elsewhere a report of the interview between the American Commissioner and the interesting savage known as Sitting Bull. After destroying Gen. Custer and his command last summer Sitting Bull and his tribe made their way to Canadian territory, where he now is with the avowed object of becoming a permanent settler. The Governments of Canada and of the United States, fearing that he would take advantage of his residence on British soil to make incursions across the border, and thus imperil existing good relations between the two Governments, caused a commission to be sent to Sitting Bull to invite him and his tribe to return to American territory, offering immunity for past offences and promising to treat them with consideration and justice henceforth. Sitting Bull, it will be seen, refused to repose confidence in the professions of the American Government. He insulted General Terry—a just and good man and an excellent soldier—and refused to shake hands with any of the American commissioners, while he carressed and overwhelmed with attentions the British officers who had accompanied him to the place of meeting as a guarantee of good faith. Several of the Sioux chiefs followed in a strain similar to their commander, but a crowning insult was offered the American commissioners by the introduction on the scene of a loquacious squaw, who spoke her piece with considerable vollubility and vim. The commission proved a failure and Sitting Bull and his companions have returned to British territory, where it is hoped that they will behave themselves for the future. One cannot help but admire the simple, trusting faith of the savages in their Good Mother—as they term Her Majesty, and the gratitude which they exhibit towards their protectors, the Canadian Mounted Police.

English Mail.

(Per steamer Isabel.)

George Eliot seems to have incurred the enmity of the English reviewers, the last attack upon her emanating from the Church Quarterly, which charges her with writing books subversive of good morals. The writer denounces "Daniel Deronda" as irreligious in tendency, and declares that all her stories are directed against marriage.

The residents of the quiet village of Minton, in England, have had an experience of bombardment in time of peace. At midday, a 16-pound shell fell in the middle of the main street, and ploughed up the turf a long distance. Another shell soon fell into a garden near by, and a third entered the roof of a barn, utterly demolishing the building. The frightened villagers fled from their homes to the open country. It was soon ascertained that the Royal Horse Artillery were practising gunnery upon a lofty eminence some two miles distant, and that the gunners had put their targets in a line with the village. A mounted messenger informed the officer in command of the village catastrophe, and the firing ceased.

Mr. Charles Barry, the eminent English architect, has entered a final protest against placing the obelisk presented to England by the Khedive in Parliament Square. "The erection of the model," writes Mr. Barry, "seems practically to have determined the position of the monolith, just as the erection of the model of the Duke of Wellington's equestrain state over the arch on Constitution Hill led to the erection of the statute itself, which, it is well known, was at once, and has been since, the laughing-stock of men of taste, whether foreigners or Englishmen." From the first, however, Mr. Erasmus Wilson, through whose liberality the monolith was secured, Lord Harrowby and their friends have been in favour of the site, so that its adoption was a foregone conclusion.

Recently the Chief Constable for Somerset, Mr. Goold, received information that a farmer at West Pennard had in his possession some Colorado beetles. P. C. Joce, who is stationed there, was at once communicated with, and on going to the house of a man named Giles Collings, laterly returned from America, Joce met a sister of Collings, and on demanding to see the beetles, she stated that her brother had destroyed them. The constable being doubtful as to the accuracy of the information, sought out the brother, and on being questioned he admitted that he had some of the beetles in a box, which he showed to the constable. The constable at once took possession of the box and beetles, and brought them to Glastonbury, where they were safely secured in a bottle of spirits of wine. The beetles were all alive, and although it is alleged they had no food since they were taken on board in Canada, they did not seem to be any the worse for their long fast.

A writer in the London Truth says:—Several cases of sham lords and other bogus scions of the aristocracy have recently been brought to light, Another of these worthies, and a very successful one, is still on his travels. As "Hugh Courteney," he has particularly distinguished himself, and for the past few years has been equally well known in Europe, India, Australia and America as "Lord Courteney," "The Hon. Conyngham Denison," "Lord Henry Vaen Tempest," and other self-appropriated titles too numerous to mention. He stayed for five weeks in Buffalo, N.Y., on the somewhat limited capital (which he was never able to increase by any felonious borrowings) of $1 50 (6 shillings). The landlord of the hotel he patronized suffered to the extent of £100, and all the respectable citizens of Buffalo, who, with proverbial American hospitality, had entertained the illustrious stranger, were mortified by seeing him pass the remainder of his visit in gaol. Having conferred an inestimable benefit on the United States by leaving their kindly shores, he was, not long ago, adding insult to injury by staying at one of the largest hotels in London as "Lieut. Lambert, U. S. A."

SAMOA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9—A letter to the Chronicle from a Samoan correspondent gives an account of recent events there. It states that Griffin, the American Consul, took forcible possession of the property of G. J. Smith & Co., a British firm at Malanlu, for an alleged American claim, without having first sent the claim through the British Consul, as is the custom. In the absence of a legal system in the islands, the representatives of Smith & Co. and Hunt & Cubrough regained possession of the warehouse and the property was put under the British seal, pending a settlement of the matter. Griffin tried to get the natives to attack the warehouse, but they declined because he could not raise twenty thousand dollars, which they demanded for the enterprise. A Committee of Safety has been organized to preserve peace.

INDIA.

CALCUTTA, Nov. 9—The Musselmen upcountry are much exoited over the news of the Russian victories.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Four hundred of the principal inhabitants of Bulgaria, including the Geshoffs and their families, have been sentenced to exile in Asia Minor and started in chains under a strong escort to-day.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—It is reported that the Russian bank in Paris has received a telegram that the gates of Erzeroum had been opened to the Russians.

Five hundred deserters from Plevna are reported en route to the Russian headquarters. It is believed from this and other signs that Osman Pasha must shortly surrender or attempt a sortie.

ATHENS, Nov. 8.—Almost all the provincial municipalities have voted resolutions urging union amongst political leaders and speedy warlike preparations.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Lord Derby has notified the Chinese government that the distruction of the Woo Sung railway will be regarded as an unfriendly act.

The Times says John Brougham arrived at 9 o'clock last night and is completely prostrated with his old enemy, inflammatory rheumatism.

MADRID, Nov. 8.—The government intends giving Gen. Grant an official reception.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—John Morrissey is reported to have died to-night

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., Nov. 9—The steamer Minia, succeeded yesterday in picking up the broken ends of the direct cable. It was blowing heavily at the time and the cable parted again. Operations will be resumed as soon as the weather permits.

Russia as a Christian Liberator.

Count Ladislas Plater, chairman of the committee of expatriated Poles, has written a letter to the French papers, in which he says: "The self-styled liberator of the Christians of the East redoubles his cruel persecutions on those Christians who have the misfortune to live under the sceptre of Russia. Letters received from Warsaw only a short time ago state that three Uniates have been shot in Warsaw and a fourth hanged. It is in this way that conversion to the Muscovite schism is brought about in Poland. There is no relaxation in the persecution; the teaching of the catechism in Polish is forbidden; priests are not allowed to stir from their parishes. At Wilna a priest, who was compelled to read in his church the manifesto of the Czar in which war was declared with Turkey, has been banished to Archangel for having done so in Polish. The cruelties against Uniates continue. It is attempted to force them by terrible cruelties and ruin to become schismatics, but the heroic population continue firm, and exhibit to the world the strength of religious conviction. At Lubienki, in the district of Bielak, a Uniate woman who was ordered to have her baby baptized in the schism, refused. For this crime she was brutally flogged and thrown into prison, while the village was occupied by the soldiers, who completely sacked it. . . . Two Uniates in Wallachia, who took part in the pilgrimage, have related to many distinguished personages in Vienna the miserable lot of the inhabitant of their province. The condition of the exiled priests is no better, and they are exposed to the greatest misery. Every effort is being made to relieve the distress, and it is to be hoped that the generous contributions of Catholics in different countries will continue to flow in."

"MY PANTALOONS!"—A very absent minded member of the French Institute was reading the newspaper in the Casino at Dieppe the other day. Engrossed by what he was reading, his left hand unconsciously pushed the files of newspapers. Each moment he pushed further from him the pile of newspapers. Beyond them was an inkstand. Presently the inkstand went over the side of the table. It fell on the white trousers of a Paris banker, who naturally—put yourself in his place—was furious. The guilty party offered his best excuses without appeasing the banker's wrath, who shrieked that his brand new pantaloons were ruined. "But, sir, I will cheerfully pay for them; be good enough to give me your card, and I will send the money to your hotel." "To my hotel! Sir, I don't know you. I must instantly have the thirty francs those pantaloons cost." The guilty party drew forth the thirty francs and paid them; then he said: "Now that you have been paid, I hope you have too much the delicacy of a gentleman to remain in my pantaloons. You know those pantaloons are my property, and I insist upon their immediate delivery to me. You had no confidence in me; I have none in you. My pantaloons." In vain the banker protested against such haste. The crowd that had gathered around the disputants said the member of the institute was right, and the banker, after sending a servant for another pair of pants, surrendered the ink-stained ones amid the laughter of the bystanders.—Paris Correspondence of New Orleans Picayune

County Court.

(Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.)

FRIDAY, 9th Nov., 1877.

McCarthy vs Argyle.—His Honor Judge Pemberton on taking his seat, before proceeding to give judgment in this case, asked Mr. Robertson, counsel for Mr. Argyle the appellant, whether he would not prefer taking a nonsuit, or in other words, whether he would not prefer withdrawing the appeal to having judgment delivered, as in his view of the case, according to the evidence given, it would be to the appellant's advantage to withdraw the appeal. Mr. Robertson, after a few remarks to the Bench, concluded by saying that the appellant was perfectly satisfied to let the case rest on its merits and therefore he would request that judgment be delivered.

His Honor then gave judgment for the appellant and ordered the conviction to quashed.

Bell & Watson vs. Moore.—Mr. Robertson, on behalf of Capt. Moore, applied for a further adjournment, and produced an affidavit detailing a conversation between his clerk and Mr. Johnson's clerk respecting the proposed adjournment, and another affidavit that the defendant was detained at Stickeen river by his steamboat and that an important witness was expected from Wrangel shortly.

Mr. Johnson opposed the application and warmly protested against the practice of making affidavits respecting conversations between attorneys' clerks. He said the case was first set down to be tried on the 3d of July last, since which time it had been adjourned five times on defendant's application, although Capt. Moore had been in Victoria many times since that date, and no reason was given why the absent witness could not have been produced. The plaintiffs were workingmen, one of whom had come over twice from Puget Sound at great expense and the other had come down from the Stickeen river specially to attend the trial. If any further adjournments were granted he would be obliged to abandon the case, as the men could not afford the expense and delay.

His Honor said he thought the application reasonable.

Mr. Johnson then asked if the usual terms of paying the costs of the adjournment would be imposed.

The Judge said he would not impose any terms till the case was finally decided.

The case was then adjourned to the December Court.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before H. C. Courtney, Esq., P.M.)

FRIDAY, Nov. 9.

Patrick Kenaely, charged with fighting on the streets and with unlawfully assaulting Sergt. Bloomfield, by butting him with his head and by biting his thumb.

Sergeant Bloomfield being sworn, said that about 8:30 p.m. on the 8th inst. he arrested and put the prisoner in gaol for fighting on the streets, and while in the yard he tried to get his coat off to fight and then butted the witness several times in the chest and stomach, and said he would bite the witness' nose off; finally he got witness' thumb in his mouth and bit the nail off (nail produced). Dr. Matthews dressed the thumb.

Charles Pagden being sworn, said he was acting as assistant gaoler on the night of the 8th inst.; saw Bloomfield bring in the prisoner who wanted to fight; saw him assault the officer; found the thumb-nail produced on the ground.

His Honor bound the prisoner over to keep the peace for one month in the sum of $50 for fighting on the streets, and for the second charge of assaulting and wounding an officer he had no alternative but to send the case up for trial.

Wm. Wood, charged with fighting on the streets, and also with assaulting an officer.

Constable Higgins being sworn, said he was on duty on Government street about 8:30 p.m. yesterday, when he saw the prisoner and another fighting; while arresting the prisoner he struck him (witness) in the mouth, bit his thumb, and tore his shirt.

In answer to the Court the prisoner said he had no questions to ask; if he bit the officer's thumb he supposed he (the officer) must have put it in his mouth and it was a pity he did not bite it off.

For fighting on the street the prisoner was ordered to find security in the sum of $100 to be of good behavior for two months, or in default, two months' imprisonment with hard labor. On the second charge the Court fined the prisoner $25 or one month's imprisonment with hard labor.

Hugh Walters, charged with supplying intoxicating liquor to an Indian woman, was discharged.

Joseph Bell, charged with refusing duty on board the barque Brierly Hill.

Alexander Baird, being duly sworn, said he was Captain of the British barque Brierly Hill; produced the ship's articles; Joseph Bell's name is on the said books as an able seaman; the Captain then read from the ship's log book in support of the charge of refusing to do duty from the 13th Oct. last to date.

His Honor sentenced the prisoner to 12 weeks' imprisonment with hard labor and to forfeit 6 days' pay for every 24 hours' neglect of duty.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.—The death roll has been again called and Charles Moss has gone to the front. He died yesterday morning at his residence on Fort street, after a short but painful illness, leaving a widow who is disconsolate at his loss. Mr. Moss landed at Victoria on the 13th of June, 1858, and has always been counted amongst our most useful and energetic citizens. He possessed an openhearted, generous disposition and none who knew him well but will experience a pang of regret at his departure. Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge will conduct the funeral services at the Reformed Episcopal Church to-day, and the body will be consigned to the grave by the Odd Fellows, of which body he was a valuable member.

THE steamer Enterprise left at 8 a. m. yesterday for New Westminster with the mails, express and the following passengers: Mrs. J. H. Innes, Mrs. M. Thain, Mrs. McN. Jones, Mrs. Black, Dr. Matthews, Rev. Mr. Murray, and Messrs. J. H. Innes, Bennett, J. H. Turner, I. Oppenheimer, N. Shakespeare, M. Thain, J. Boland, A. Coutlee, J. Mimton, Wise, L. Guichon and several others. The Gypsies also went up to the Mainland by yesterday's boat.

OBSTRUCTION.—Some one has deposited a load of gravel on Burdett avenue, directly opposite Christ Church door. Immediately over the obstruction is a gas lamp, which was not lighted on Thursday night and pedestrians, in blissful ignorance of the gravel, tripped and fell over it. In one instance, at least, a gentleman suffering from rheumatism fell and required assistance to raise him. It seems to us that so wilful a disregard for the safety of citizens should be punished.

ESQUIMALT ROAD.—Day after day complaints continue to arrive about the dangers on this road after dark. On Thursday night two men attempted to stop a carriage, and travelers have been stopped and money demanded. The police are endeavoring to get a clue as to who these highwaymen are, and it would be well for anyone stopped to remember their description so that this style of robbery may be at once checked.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The following passengers were booked by the Alaska up to 4 p.m. yesterday: Miss Richards, Mrs. H. Leopold, Mrs. Morgan and 2 children, Mrs. Duck and son, and Messrs. A. Vowell, G. J. Findlay, Thos. T. Dargie, A. Churton, Wm. Delanty, Q. L. Walker, Wm. Stark, L. Crease, F. O'Reilly and 16 in the steerage including 11 Chinamen.

THE WRECK.—The steamer Maude yesterday visited the wreck and found all still above water. Mr. Harmon was on board and reported that the sea broke over her during the night. Harmon says he will not be sorry to get on dry land once more. The Maude brought nothing away from the wreck.

THE BIG NUGGET.—The owners of the largest British Columbia nugget (it wieghs 72 ounces), will raffle it. Maynard has faithfully produced a photograph of the lump which has the appearance of a large early rose potatoe. It is proposed to hold the raffle on Christmas Eve. Three hundred chances at $5 a share.

THE PENGE CASE.—Her Majesty has pardoned Alice Rhodes and has commuted the punishment of the other prisoners to imprisonment for life.

THE steamer Emma left at 8 o'clock last evening with a few passengers for Nanaimo.

GUY FAWKES' DAY.—The urchins of Nanaimo observed Guy Fawkes' day with huge bonfires.

THE U.S. steamer Lackawanna is ordered to San Francisco.

THE LILLIPUTIANS.—Col. Filkins, representing the Lilliputian Opera Company, arrived yesterday and has secured Theatre Royal from the 15th to the 23d inst. The company have met with surprising success at Portland, applicants for seats being turned away at the door. A Portland paper says of their performance: "The entertainment is so different in all respects from anything heretofore presented in this city, that it is an agreeable change and irresistibly attractive. The contrast between pigmies and the giant Col. Goshen, is real, tangible and startling. One can hardly realize that men and women fully developed and of mature years are before them, and the thought insensibly and gradually supervenes that they are but children acting the part of grown people. The performance is nevertheless meritorious, and the actors possess real talent, singing and dancing very gracefully. Commodore Nutt and Miss Jennie Quigley are versatile performers, with a keen appreciation of the parts that is pleasant to contemplate. Miss Ella Kirtland is a pretty little mite, and, in fact, the whole troupe insensibly ingratiate themselves with the audience. No piece has been produced in Portland which has attained so decided a popularity as this comic opera."

NANAIMO.—Bailey & Trifall have received the contract for constructing a tramway to the Cornish coal mine....On Monday a fine, promising boy of two years of Mr. Samuel Fiddick, was killed under the following peculiar circumstances: Mr. Fiddick is a farmer on the Nanaimo river, and had set fire to a stump near his house, on the top of which he had placed a small log to assist in burning the stump. After the stump had been burning some time, the log rolled off and the little boy, who was playing near the stump, was knocked down by it. In falling the boy's head came in contact with a snag projecting from an adjoining stump, inflicting a wound in the back of the neck and killing the child instantly.

THE steamer Cariboo-Fly arrived at 5:30 p.m. yesterday from the East Coast with the following passengers: Mrs. Shubert, Miss J. Merty, Miss M. A. Herd, Miss C. Hawkyard, L. Watt, Messrs. R. D. Chandler, R. Wingate, S. Hamilton, J. Denny, A. B. Gray, J. Dick, W. Hirst, J. Griffith, J. G. Pimbury, J. C. Brown, J. Wallace, G. G. B. Odin and a few others.

THE Pacific Mail Steamship Company substituted white for Chinese coal-passers on their Australian steamers, the other day, and when one of their vessels was ready for sea it was found that the stokers were drunk. The steamer went to sea with a full complement of Chinese coal-passers who were furnished at one hour's notice.

THE steamer Alexander towed the ship Belvidere from Nanaimo last night. The Belvidere has 2000 tons of coal on board for Acapulco.

GOLD COMMISSIONER VOWELL goes home on three months' leave, after an absence of fifteen years. He bears with him the respect and confidence of all classes.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Alaska arrived from Puget Sound ports yesterday and will sail for San Francisco at 12, noon, to-day.

THE ship Star of the North has been chartered at Hastings mills to load foreign with lumber.

T. NICHOLSON requests us to state that his loss by the absquatulating bumboatmen is less than $1000.

THE bark Brierly Hill commenced discharging cargo yesterday. The packages are in excellent condition.

THE SWORDFISH.—The wreck of this ship will be sold at auction by J. P. Davies & Co. at 11 a.m. to-day.

SITTING BULL.

Graphic Picture of the Pow-wow at Fort Walsh.

Speeches by the Great "Medicine Man" and His Chiefs.

Queen Before President.

MESSAGE FROM THE GREAT FATHER.

General Terry's principal duty was to lay before the chiefs of all the tribes represented at the council the message from the Great Father at Washington. He said the President desired to make a lasting peace; that this was for their own sakes, and that if they would consent to return to their country and hereafter refrain from all acts of hostility against the Government of the United States a full pardon would be given them for all their past acts; that no matter what those acts had been none would be punished; that they should be forgiven in the same spirit that other tribes who had surrendered had been; that the Indians who had surrendered had simply been required to give up their arms and horses, except such horses as had been shown to be necessary to them, and that the guns and animals were sold for the benefit of those from whom they had been taken; that already some six hundred and fifty cows had been distributed among the agencies on the Missouri river, as the Government believed the future welfare of the Sioux was in the abandonment of their present rambling mode of life and the adoption of the occupation of cattle raising.

CONTEMPT.

The faces of the assembled Indians during the delivery of this address were as impenetrable as granite. There were two exceptions. Once a smile of more than ordinary significance curled the lips of Sitting Bull, and once the right eye of Spotted Eagle actually winked derision toward Colonel McLeod.

PUTTING IN THEIR PIPES.

But until the finish all the Indians continued to smoke, smoke, smoke. Then, while Colonel McLeod sat in his chair and Major Walsh rested on the corner of a table, Sitting Bull, Spotted Eagle, and the rest continued to smoke. They smoked. They smoked until the room reeked. They smoked as if they were smoking for their lives. Yet while they smoked their visages were as unreadable as the faces of the Sphinx, and, although everybody felt something unpropitious in the air, no one would have ventured a prophecy until Sitting Bull arose, in his barbaric grandeur, and said:—

SITTING BULL'S SPEECH.

"For sixty-four years you have kept me and my people and treated me bad. What have we done that you should want us? We have done nothing. It is the people on your side that have started us to do all these depredations. We could not go anywhere else, so we took refuge in this country of the British. It was on this side of the country that we learned to shoot and that is the reason why I came back to it again. I would like to know why you came here in the first place? I did not give you the country, but you followed me from one place to another, so I had to leave and come over to this country.

"I did not give you any country, but you took it away from us. (Here the speaker's eyes glanced defiance.) I was born and raised in this country with the Red River half-breeds, and I intend to stop here. I was raised hand in hand with the Red River half-breeds and we are going to that part of the country, and that is the reason why I have come over here shaking hands with the English officers. That is the way I was raised in the hands of these people here, and that is the way I intend to be with them. You have got ears to hear and you have got eyes to see, and you see how I live with these people. You see me here. I am, if you think I am, a fool. You are bigger fools than I am. This house is a medicine house. You come here to tell us lies, but we don't want to hear them. I don't wish any such language used to me; that is, to tell me such lies in my Great Mother's house (alluding to Queen Victoria.) Don't you say two more words. Go back home where you came from. This country is mine and I intend to stay here and to raise this country full of grown people. See these people here. We were raised with them (again shaking hands with the English officers.) That is enough! so no more. You see me shaking hands with these people. The part of the country you gave me you ran me out of. I have now come here to stay with these people, and I intend to stay here. I wish you to go back and to take it easy going back."

WHAT HE MEANT

By "taking it easy." Sitting Bull meant that the commission should take such a long time in going that it would never get back. The "how hows" of the Indians interrupting this address showed the perfect sympathy between them and Sitting Bull. His note was the keynote. It convinced the commission at once of the policy which had been unalterably decided on by Sitting Bull and his braves. Several other Sioux took their opportunities to speak. The one that runs the Ree, a Santee Indian, speaking next, said:

SITTING BULL ENDORSED.

"Look at me. I was born and raised in this country. These people away North I was raised with, my hand in their own. I have lived in peace with them for the last sixty-four years. We were over in your country and you treated us badly, and we have come over here now, and you want to try and get us back there again. You didn't treat us well and I don't like you at all." Shaking hands with the English officers, he continued:—"I have been up and down these roads; we have been running up and down this country. I have been up and down them as often as these people have. I will be at peace with these people as long as I live. You come over here to tell us lies. I will shake hands here. I have been in peace with them. I have come this far into this country. These are the people that taught me how to shoot the first time.

"This country is ours. We did not give it to you. You stole it away from us. You have come here to our country to tell us lies, and I don't propose to talk much, and that is all I have to say. I want you to take it easy going back home. Don't go in a rush."

A SQUAW'S ADVICE.

At the conclusion of this a squarw, an anomalous orator among the Indians, stepped boldly forward. Sitting Bull and his companions demanded that the tables which intervened between them and the Commissioners should be moved, and the Commission politely assented. The squaw that was to speak was the "Wife-of-The-Man-that-Scatters-the Bear." She was considered by some who were present to be an embodied insult to the Commission, inasmuch as the office of squaw of an Indian tribe is so degrading as seldom to admit her to any sort of equality with her chief.

She said:—"I was over to your country. I wanted to raise my children over there, but you did not give any time. I come over to this country to raise my children and have a little peace—(shaking hands with the English officers.) That is all I have to say to you. I want you to go back where you came from. These are the people I am going to stay with and raise my childr en."

FLYING BIRD'S INSOLENCE.

The Flying Bird, chief of the Minneconjous, next rose. He was the most picturesque, and, at the same time, the most absurd Indian of the lot—a cross between a "medicine man" and a warrior.

"See these people here. God Almighty raised us together. We have a little sense, and we ought to love one another. Sitting Bull here says that whenever you found us out, wherever his country was, why you wanted to have it. It is Sitting Bull's country. This is this people's. Sitting Bull's is all around. What they have committed I have nothing to do with. I was not in it. The soldiers find out where we live, and they never think of anything good. It is always something bad." (Again he shook hands with the English officers.)

PLAIN QUESTIONS.

Generals Terry and Lawrence exhibited little concern during the progress of the proceedings. The Indians who seemed to be rather chagrined at the non-effect of their tactics on the Commission, imperturbably arose and were about to leave the room, but the interpreter arrested them for a moment, and was desired by Gen. Terry to ask the following questions:—

"Shall we say to the President that you refuse the offers he has made to you?"

"Are we to understand from what you have said that you refuse those offers?"

A long pause followed. All the redskins present, including Sitting Bull himself, felt the occasion was important. They cast inquiring glances toward Col. McLeod and Major Walsh, who gave them no responsive sign. They looked suspiciously toward the interpreters. The interpreters were uninterpretable. They deliberated with some trepidation on an issue which concerned so greatly the future weal or woe of themselves, their families, and their people.

SITTING BULL'S ULTIMATUM.

Sitting Bull again stood up and said:—"I could tell you more, but that is all that I have to tell you. If we told you more, why you would have paid no attention. That is all I have to say. This part of the country does not belong to your people. You belong on the other side. This side belongs to us."

During this decisive harangue the "how," "how" of the assembled redskins became more and more confident and emphatic.

THE CROW'S SPEECH.

The Crow, after embracing Colonel McLeod and Major Walsh, and taking the hands of several other Dominion officers in the room, exclaimed:—

"This is the way I will live in this part of the country. That is the way I like them (making a gesture of embrace). When we came back from the other side you wanted to do something. You wanted us to go back to the other side. That is the reason why you stay here. What do you mean by coming over here and talking that way to us? All this country around here I know belongs to these people, and that is the reason why I came over here when I was driven out of the other country.

"I am afraid of God Almighty; that is the reason why I don't want to do anything bad. When I came over here I came to live with these people. My children, myself, and my women, they all live together. These people that don't hide anything, they are the people I like. I suppose you wanted to hear something; that is why you came over here. The people standing around here want to hear it also. That is the reason they stand around here. Sixty-four years ago we shook hands with the soldiers, and ever since that I have had hardships.

"I made peace with them, and ever since that I have been running from one place to another to keep out of their way. I was over across the line and stayed over there, and thought your people would take good care of me. You did not do so, and these people over here give me good care. I have waited here three days, and I have got plenty to eat and everybody respects me. I came from the other side of the line and I expect to stay here. Going back, 'you can take it easy; go where you were born and stay there."

INDIAN DEMAGOGUERY.

The Crow is thus seen to have been a vulgar demagogue among savages. Sitting Bull and Spotted Eagle declined to applaud him, although they were greater demagogues than he. A great deal of byplay had been progressing among the Indians during the brief conference. Getting sick of it, at the end of the Crow's speech General Terry asked the interpreter the plain question, "Do they refuse?"

SITTING BULL'S FOOT DOWN.

In a few moments Sitting Bull looked up and said to the interpreter, "I told you what I meant. That's enough."

General Terry, smiling, said, "That's all."

Sitting Bull, still meaning to be aggressive, shot this Parthian arrow—"Go; you belong to the other side," and Sitting Bull and his chieftains had violated their traditional tact.

GENERAL TERRY GETS EVEN WITH BULL.

General Terry, rising and consulting with Colonel MacLeod, said—"I think we can have nothing more to say to them, Colonel."

"Well," said Colonel MacLeod, "I suppose you are right."

"In that case," said General Terry to the interpreter, "tell them there is nothing more." This decision disconcerted the redskins a bit, although they did not care to manifest their chagrin. The chief aim of Sitting Bull and his confidants had been to humiliate the commission. After declining a reasonable conversation and responding with an organized affront to the decorous advances of the Commissioners he completed his insult by rising at the end of the Conference, shaking hands with the Dominion officers and addressing to them terms of affection and respect, while at the same time he slighted all Americans present by not even saying the Indian "how" or goodby.

SITTING BULL'S LAST ASSURANCE.

Sitting Bull returned to his camp this morning, accompanied by Major Walsh, whose duty it is to see to the peace in any quarter of the Northwest. The Commission on starting out on its long march to Helena across the plains, which recently seemed interminable, is blest by Sitting Bull's assurance to me, which he omitted to give to the commission, that he will not encourage his young braves to seek our scalps on the route below. He and his companion chiefs and the one squaw who was eloquent yesterday have gone over the mountains.

ANOTHER WAR POSSIBLE.

The pronounced friendly relations of Sitting Bull and his tribe to the Dominion officials, as expressed at the conference with the United States Commission, renders it unlikely they will soon encroach upon our border, but there are so many restless braves in the camp that spring will probably witness the advance of war parties into Montana.

"GOOD BY."

The last vision of the expedition after Sitting Bull is that of Major Walsh mounted on his horse Barney, himself attired in boots, corduroys, a slouched hat, and a buckskin hunting shirt, saying "farewell" and galloping away across the prairie, all the dogs of the two camps following at his heels. The Sitting Bull Commission says "farewell" to-night, and it will make its first camp on its return homewards.

Steele's PAIN ERADICATOR.

The Most Wonderful Discovery of the Age!

The World Moves, and Unless we Progress we Must go Backwards. Nothing Remains Stationary.

In offering this medicine it is not intended to deceive the people as a cure for every complaint on earth; but a really scientific article of the greatest merit, which will prove a boon to suffering humanity—both on account of its adaptability to both man and beast, its readiness of application, and the price being within the reach of all. It will actually cure:

Rheumatism,	Colic,
Stiff Joints,	Bruises,
Sore Throat,	Cuts
Lame Back,	Contracted Cords,
Headache,	Contracted Muscles,
Faceache,	Lameness,
Earache,	Diarrhœa,
Neuralgia,	Cramps,
Gout,	Sores,
Swellings,	Burns and Scalds,
Sprains,	Inflamation of the Kidneys

AND ALL NERVOUS AND INFLAMMATORY ACHES AND PAINS.

DR. STEELE, who has for years been in the Proprietory Medicine business, and who has traveled in various parts of the world in search of information, has great confidence in the ERADICATOR as the "Ne Plus Ultra" of safe, sure and reliable remedies for general use as a Family Doctor.

Provide yourself with a bottle without delay, and you will always keep it in the family and save money. Don't be put off with some other preparation. Take only STEELE'S PAIN ERADICATOR. We can produce thousands of testimonials as to cures made; but a trial will prove to the most skeptical that it is truly an Eradicator of Pains, Aches, and Inflammations. It has been, and is now, constantly used by horsemen as a Liniment, and has saved more valuable property of that kind than any other preparation. Take pains to see that you get the genuine.

Put up in large bottles, and for sale by druggists and dealers. If you happen to be in a locality where STEELE'S PAIN ERADICATOR cannot be obtained, send to the nearest wholesale druggist, or to the Agents,
